THE PRAYERS

1 O Crucified Jesus! We fall at Your feet and offer You the tears of Her, who with deep compassionate love accompanied You on Your sorrowful Way of the Cross. Grant, O Good Master, that we take to heart the lessons which the tears of Your most holy Mother teach us, so that we may fulfill Your holy will on earth, that we may be worthy to praise and exalt You in Heaven for all eternity. Amen.

2 Ÿ. O Jesus, look upon the tears of Her who loved You most on earth,
Ŕ. And who loves You most ardently in Heaven.

3 Ÿ. O Jesus, hear our prayers,
Ŕ. For the sake of Your most holy Mother's tears.

4 Ÿ. O Jesus, look upon the tears of Her who loved You most on earth,
Ŕ. And who loves You most ardently in Heaven.

5 O Mary, Mother of love, sorrow, and mercy, we beseech you to unite your prayers with ours so that Jesus, your Divine Son, to Whom we turn, may hear our petitions in the name of your maternal tears, and grant us, not only the favors we now ask, but the crown of everlasting life.

Amen.

Jesus said to Sr. Amalia, “Anything that anyone asks me through the tears of my Mother, I will grant it with much love.” In 1930 the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Sr. Amalia to bestow a new devotion: “This is the Rosary of my Tears. My Son wants to honor me in a special way through these invocations, and so, He will grant all graces that are begged for the sake of my tears. I am the Mother of the Divine Mercy! I cry before my Son for the sins of all men and I am always interceding before the Throne of the Most High for poor sinners. When a sinner is rebellious and does not want to hear you, come to my feet and ask through my Blessed Tears. If it is a soul of good will, you will obtain from God the grace for this soul not to be lost. Being Mother of all men and seeing many of them lost, I cry for those who, being hardened, run the risk of precipitating themselves into hell. This rosary will obtain the conversion of many sinners, especially those possessed by the devil. Through this rosary the devil will be defeated and the power of hell will be destroyed. Get ready for this great battle.”

Again in 1930, the Blessed Mother appeared to Sister Amalia to reveal the Medal of Our Lady of Tears. This medal is to increase the humility of the faithful and to serve in a special way for the conversion of atheists, heretics, communists and, as with the Rosary of Tears, those possessed by the devil. On the medal are represented the virtues of meekness and humility, symbolized by the image of Jesus Ecce Homo, with hands bound, and the inscription, By Thy Divine Meekness, O Jesus Bound, save the world from the error which threatens it. On the other side of the medal, the image of Our Sorrowful Mother, Our Lady of Tears, with the inscription O Virgin Most Sorrowful, thy Tears have destroyed the Infernal Empire.

In 1934, Sr Amalia's Bishop, Msgr. Count Franciscus von Campos Barreto, approved the devotion. He gave an Imprimatur to the Rosary of Tears and recommended use of the Medal, saying it had already worked innumerable miracles.
